Manuel Viego Mabuaka

Contact: Mark Roy | 207.805.8000 | mroy@ntinow.edu

Bi-lingual, reliable Manufacture Technician with skills in electrical technician assembling seeking employment to utilize my safety and communication skills in a production setting.

EDUCATION

Manufacturing Technician — 9/2017- 11/2017
Northeast Technical Institute — Scarborough, ME

Université-Libre de Kinshasa, Kinshasa, DRC — 1998
Bachelor of Political Science

SKILLS

- Read and Interpret Blueprints
- Use of Hand Tools
- Production & Assembly Procedures
- Lean Manufacturing
- Safe Operating Procedures
- Documentation & Reporting
- Leadership skills
- Preventive Maintenance
- Precision Measurement
- Bi-lingual: English/French
- Bench work skills
- Hazardous material identification

WORK EXPERIENCE

BP, AMOCO, EXXON, MOBILE, ESSO, Angola, Gabon, & Congo — 2001 - 2014

HSE Manager, Assistant Driller, Derrick man, Store Keeper, Material Man, Logistic Supervisor, Electricity Mechanic, Motor Man, Solids Control Engineer

Served in multiple roles on various deep ocean drilling projects gaining several certifications including NEBOSH International Technical Certificate in Oil and Gas Operation and Safety, HSE-Safetyman, and ESSO Solids Control Certification. Projects included the Aleution Key Rig and the Transocean Rather. Significant roles listed below:

OTHER

Job Class — Portland, ME
Portland Adult Education — 1/2017- 3/2017

NEBOSH International Technical Certificate in Oil and Gas Operation Safety

National Examination Board in Occupational Safety and Health, Shields E-Learning,